
Descendants of Robert Wilson

First Generation

1. Robert Wilson. The earliest information I have about Robert is that he bought land in Augusta Co., VA, in 1755. He bought the land from his brother, Samuel, who had bought it in 1745. Many of the early settlers of Augusta County were from Scots-Irish families who had initially settled in Pennsylvania, so speculation is that Robert and Samuel might have been born in Pennsylvania or in Northern Ireland. There are also old family stories that Robert was a brother or half-brother of James Wilson, the signer of the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution. I know of no evidence for this, but James Wilson was from Scotland, so another possibility would be that Robert was born in Scotland. He died after 9 Sep 1768 in Augusta Co., VA. He was a farmer.

He was married to Mary unknown. Mary unknown died after 1768. Robert Wilson and Mary unknown had the following children:

- 2 i. Thomas Wilson.
- 3 ii. Samuel Wilson.
- 4 iii. James Wilson.

Second Generation

9. William Wilson (Robert-1) was born about 1756 in Augusta Co., VA. He died on 14 Oct 1827 in Howard Co., MO. (Birth and death dates are uncertain.) He was a farmer and possibly a lawyer. He served in the military in the Revolutionary War (this is also uncertain).

He was married to Catharine Yancey before 1790 in Charleston, SC. Catharine Yancey was born between 1761 and 1770 in SC. (Birth years and place are uncertain, as is the place of marriage.) She died between 1830 and 1839 in Randolph Co., MO. William Wilson and Catharine Yancey had the following children:

Third Generation

10. John Wilson (William-2, Robert-1) was born on 28 Jan 1790 in Augusta Co., VA (some sources say he was born in TN, but that doesn't seem very likely). He died on 2 Feb 1877 in Suisun, Solano Co., CA, and was buried in California. He was a lawyer and politician. He served in the military in the War of 1812. He was known as General John Wilson, but was never actually a general. He was an inspector general in the Missouri militia during the Black Hawk war (1832), and this might be the origin of his title of General.
